
Joanna Briggs Institute book collection

This collection of 23 books to support the creation of systematic reviews and meta-analyses is available online to UHL staff using their Trust Athens accounts. They can be accessed from work or home.

The titles in the series are:

- Can-Implement©: Planning for Best-Practice Implementation
- Clinical Wisdom and Evidence-Based Healthcare
- A Comparison of Meta-Aggregation and Meta-Ethnography as Qualitative Review Methods
- Critically Appraising Evidence for Healthcare
- Guideline Adaptation: Conducting Systematic, Exhaustive, and Reproducible Searches
- The Historical Emergence of Qualitative Synthesis
- Implementing Evidence Using an Action Research Framework
- International Collaboration in Translational Health Science
- Knowledge Translation in Healthcare
- Public Engagement in Translating Knowledge to Action
- Stakeholder Engagement: The Role of Tacit Knowledge and Value Statements in Translation Science
- Statistics for Systematic Review Authors
- The Synthesis of Prevalence and Incidence Data
- Synthesizing Descriptive Evidence
- Synthesizing Economic Evidence
- Synthesizing Evidence from Narrative, Text and Opinion
- Synthesizing Evidence of Diagnostic Accuracy
- Synthesizing Evidence of Harm
- Synthesizing Evidence of Risk
- Synthesizing Qualitative Evidence
- Synthesizing Quantitative Evidence
- Translation Science and The JBI Model of Evidence-Based Healthcare
- Turning Knowledge into Action: Practical Guidance on How to Do Integrated Knowledge Translation Research

These titles, along with all of our print and online books, can be found on our library catalogue: www.uhl-library.nhs.uk/catalogue

To get an Athens account NHS staff can self-register here: www.uhl-library.nhs.uk/athens